The Dog Decanter

Mouth blown and handmade in Kufstein, the slender decanter is embellished with the silhouette of a howling dog. Artistic and functional, the howling dog's concave profile is also meant to assist the decanting process, helping to aerate wine as it is being poured in.

Adorn your table settings with this festive centerpiece which is decorated with vivid stripes in black and red, embodying the colours of luck, success and happiness – from its base to its spout.
