CREATE THE ULTIMATE HOME BAR EXPERIENCE WITH TOWN HOUSE'S NEW BARWARE COLLECTION

(Hong Kong – April 2018) – As Hong Kong's fascination with spirits and mixed drinks continues to grow, Town House, the city's leading retailer and distributor of premium home accessories and tableware, is introducing a range of accessories for the aspiring home mixologist.

Whether you're hosting a ladies' night, inviting friends to watch the big game, or marking a special occasion, Town House's new collection of visually striking yet functional products allows you to impress your guests and craft a dizzying array of cocktails in the comfort of your own home.

RIEDEL Bar Tumbler Collection: Fire, the Art Nouveau-inspired cut tumblers from Riedel, presents a stark contrast to Riedel's purist, unadorned wine glasses.

Being a stylish yet subtly nostalgic barware collection, 'Fire' is distinguished by its dynamic, flame-like decoration. The Fire Whisky and Fire Longdrink tumblers feature a sophisticated design with a traditional wide mouth and thick bottom that highlights the complexity of flavour; and the faceted texture gives an impressive visual effect. Designed by Georg Riedel himself, this collection is a 'must-have' for all cocktail and spirits lovers.
